A Republican State Convention

WILL BE HELD IN

NORONBEGA HALL, BANGOR,

Thursday, June 26, 1879,

at 11 o'clock A. M.,

for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Governor and for transacting whatever business may properly come before it

The basis of representation will be one delegate for each city, town and plantation and an additional delegate for every seventy five votes cast for the Republican candidate for Governor in 1878 A majority fraction will be entitled to a delegate

The State Committee will be in session the evening preceding and at 9 o clock the morning of the Convention to receive the credentials of delegates

In selecting the Delegates the Republicans are urged to assemble in full numbers and to invite the aid and co-operation of all voters who are willing to unite with them to the following ends:

1 To maintain the power and prestige of the Union and not all attempts to subvert or oppose its authority and to insist that the Government of the United States shall be controlled by loyal men

2 To discountenance and reprobate the treasonable and revolutionary course of the Democratic Congress who threaten to cripple and destroy the functions of the Government if Constitutional ally prevented from enacting partizan measures into Law

3 To uphold the right of the United States to enforce its own laws wherever they are to operate, and to frown down and put down the dangerous heresy of the States Right secession ists who have already plunged the country into one bloody war and who are now attempting to control the Government of the Union with the same measures that precede the rebellion of 1861

4 To insist upon free elections—not only free from National military interference which no one desires but also free from the interference and violence of so called State militia and the assassins who with deadly weapons have seized the polls in many of the Southern States, driving innocent and defenceless voters from the ballot-box and making a mockery of elections which war upon free suffrage has been made a distinct political issue by every Democrat in the Senate and House voting against a measure designed to prevent and suppress it.

5 To uphold the financial credit of the Government and to assure to the people of all sections a sound currency equivalent to coin at all times and at all places and redeemable in coin and to this end to oppose all distracting repudiating and mischievous efforts against the peace welfare and industrial prosperity of the People

In these aims and purposes all citizens of Maine are invited to unite, that the hands of the President and of the Republican minority in both branches of Congress may be strengthened in their efforts to uphold the honor of the Government and the just authority of National Law

By order of the Republican State Committee,

"THE TOOLS OF THE BULLIONISTS"

Throughout our last campaign one of the pet phrases of Judd and other soft money rancors on the stump, was in denunciation of every friend of sound currency as a tool of the bullionists All who wanted to maintain the National credit and thus reduce the burden of interest by millions of dollars were bowled at as enemies of the people! when the state manikie Ladd the communistic Murch the free-loving Miller and Victoria Woodhull's affinity Col Blood trotted around the State as "the people's champions"

A few days ago the House of Representatives in acting upon the Warner Silver Bill one of the most barefaced swindles ever attempted in Congress reached the section providing for free coinage This was the cream villany of the bill Its effect was to provide that any owner of silver bullion could dump it down at any U S Mint and for every 412½ grains, worth in the market 53 cents receive Government certificates or coined silver dollars made legal tender for 100 cents In other words any silver mine owner or speculative importer of surplus European silver who should carry say $80 000 worth of bullion to any U S Mint would receive therefor $100 000 in coined silver dollars or Government certificates made full legal tender for their face value a clear bonus of $17,000 on every $80 000 of bullion

That was pretty clearly a bullionist measure on its face, and yet when a Republican offered an amendment providing that the Government should receive the difference between the bullion value and the legal tender value of the coined dollars to be furnished by the Government, Ladd and Murch promptly recorded themselves against it and in favor of giving the bloated Bonanza kings a clear bonus of seventeen per cent on their cart-loads of silver ore, while compelling the Government to coin their money for nothing!

Not a man, woman or child in the United States could possibly be benefited in any way by this bonus on silver bullion save only the rich miners and speculative capitalists and their tools, while every poor man in the country would be taxed to pay the expense of running the mints for the sole purpose of giving the "bullionists" an enormous profit on their silver! Every body in Washington knows that the bill is a scandalous job and every intelligent man in the country can see that it is a barefaced scheme to enrich a few persons at the expense of the tax payers and the public credit.

The Republicans in the House, by untiring vigilance and persistent effort, have succeeded in defeating that rotten section of a rotten bill but they had to defeat it in spite of the votes of Ladd and Murch who pretend to be champ on the interests of the hard working people of Maine Perhaps they think their constituents are too ignorant to see who are acting as the tools of the bullionists but they will find they are mistaken Many good men were led into supporting the candidates of a new party under the peculiar excitements of last year who have been sobering and thinking ever since. They are fast finding out just what sort of "friends of the people they have helped to send to Washington

A GAUZY CAMPAIGN SENSATION

Since the coalition Governor and Council appointed Tolman in place of Warden Rice at the State Prison a scheme has been devised to make campaign capital out of that institution The new Warden requested the appointment of a Commission to appraise the stock and examine the accounts of the prison, and although there was no law or authority for it, a Commission of five and an expert were appointed by the Governor at $4.50 per day to do what the Prison Inspectors are paid for

The Commission consisted of Hon Newell Blake, of this city, Benjamin F Morse, of Augusta, Israel P Waterhouse, of Portland, Edward Hills, of Thomaston, and Geo W Ricker, of Rockland. Mr. Blake was evidently selected to give an air of fairness to the investigation, as he is known to be a decided Republican and a man of strict integrity. We learned several days ago that the "report" was being cooked up by several of the Democratic members at the prison, Mr. Blake being in this city at the time and on Thursday the Portland Argus came out with the document as a campaign sensation under big head lines. The substance of the matter is this: The Inspectors last year, one of whom was a Democrat, according to the Argus statement estimated the gross assets of the prison at $159,367 76 and the liabilities at $61 355 37 It says the present Commissioners, on their appraisal of stock and of the value of the accounts, put the assets April 19 1879, at $81,457.59 and the liabilities at $67,497 19. On this showing the Argus claims a shrinkage of $84,022 01.

It will be observed that this so-called "shrinkage does not purport to represent any defalcation, loss or removal of any property of the prison during the interval mentioned, or any crookedness in the accounts, but simply and solely a difference in the judgment of the inspectors and of this Commission in appraising the value of stock fixtures, property and accounts standing on the books It is not pretended that the prison was a dollar poorer on the 19th of last April than at the date of the appraisal of last year but solely that the present Commission have put much lower values upon the property and accounts than the previous appraisers' And this the Argus parades as the great sensation that the Governor and Council have cooked up for campaign capital

It was an old trick of the Democrats to have the property of the prison appraised very low when a new Democratic Warden was appointed, and then a more liberal appraisal later was used to show the efficiency of Democratic management Mr Tolman has revived the old dodge for the benefit of himself and his party This appraisal was made under the supervision of the new Warden and estimates were made upon the property exhibited by him The rantankerous Democracy of prominent members of this board will be recognized wherever their names are read, and the design to make political capital is obvious

One feature of this demonstration of shrinkage will be appreciated by all business men The prison being constantly engaged in manufacturing in dull seasons as well as others has made it necessary to sell goods to quite a large amount on credit, just as all other large establishments are obliged to do The Inspectors last year simply stated the amount due on notes Now the Commission appraise these notes at 50 per cent and thus show a large amount of shrinkage" The rest is found in a lower estimate of the value of property than that made last year

When it is remembered that during Warden Rice's management the sales of manufactures have amounted to more than one million of dollars, covering a period of wide-spread commercial disaster and bankruptcy during which the 'shrinkage' in all kinds of property has been enormous it would be more than a marvel if he had been able to keep his books free from bad debts, or to insure the continued solvency of every purchaser of goods Any wholesale house in the country would laugh at the idea of using two different estimates of the value of uncollected debts as evidence of shrinkage, of assets The boo-hoo of the Argus is very like that of a man who should be told on one day that his land contained a silver mine worth $100 000 and a day later being assured that the lot was worth only $500 its value as pasturage, should sit down and cry about a 'shrinkage' of $99 000 in his property in twenty four hours The property and accounts of the prison are worth just as much to-day so far as this report shows as they were worth when the report was made last year

So far as we can see the report does not attempt any reflection upon the integrity or zeal of the late Republican Warden, and if the Democratic party want to make a campaign issue on his business judgment and ability, it would be well to wait until their own man has demonstrated how far it can be improved The public remember that only a few years ago an exhaustive investigation costing the State some $20 000 was prosecuted under the lead of one of the most bitter Democrats and furious of reformers and resulted in a public testimonial of political opponents to the honesty and efficiency of Warden Rice.

A SERIES OF CRUSHERS.

[From the N Y Tribune]

We are surprised and pained to learn from the Democratic newspapers that Senator Blaine was reduced on Monday to a most pitiable and mortifying condition If Mr Eaton did not actually jump upon him still the Maine statesman was not less effectually demolished than if that operation had been performed The unfortunate man seems to have staggered on from one blunder to another He, 'insulted Connecticut,' we are told, and was "properly dealt with" by the great expounder of the opinions of Daniel Webster He insulted Delaware, and was shrivelled by Mr Bayard He insulted the South, and was immediately set upon by a number of soaring sons of that fervid land, who left him, like Queen Victoria when she read the double-extra Watertoast Gazette, "fixed 'and nipped and frizzled to a most eternal smash" We are unable to make out, from the Democratic journals of yesterday whether the debate was so devoid of point and interest that hardly anybody could be induced to listen to it or was so intensely exciting in the dramatic incidents of the overthrow of Blaine that the attention of all Washington was riveted upon the proceedings. Such discrepancies appear frequently in the organs of our hostile friends

The crushing of Mr Blaine on Monday, however, was only one of a long series of disasters to the Republican cause Thus Maine Senator has been repeatedly crushed during the extra session, according to the lively and variegated authorities already referred to he is reduced, about every second or third day, to a state of disgusting impotence which would make a rag look stalwart by contrast Mr. Conkling has been crushed almost out of the semblance of humanity General Garfield has been crushed to such an extent that it would have been more merciful to obliterate him entirely. And strange to say, the process to every case has been described as exceedingly dull. The stupidity of the debates has been lamented by all Democratic journalists in the same breath with their shouts of victory, and if we can believe what they tell us there has not been a lively passage of words at the Capitol, an interesting discussion of principles and historic facts, a contest for intellectual preeminence, since Congress came together Every day of discussion has been "dull" and as the invariable result, the Republicans are reported to be "greatly disappointed." Nor is it only in the contents of rhetoric that the Democracy has been victorious. This miraculously able party is perpetually placing its opponents in the most painful and ridiculous dilemmas. The failure of the appropriation bills at the last session reduced the Republicans to perplexities quite awful. The calling of the extra session doubled their trouble. The incorporation of the free fraud clause with the Army bill was a master stroke of bedevilment; and the Radicals were finally so bothered and tied up by the two vetoes that the Democratic journals could not contain their laughter Surely no political party was ever put into such a fix before.

Yet, strange to say, the Republicans keep straight on exactly as if they had won the advantage in every trial, and the Democrats conduct themselves as if they had lost it Point by point the Bourbons yield all the positions they assumed at the beginning of the struggle. They have abandoned their declared purpose to stop the Government if they were not allowed to have their own way They have abandoned their scheme to coerce the President by means of riders on the appropriation bills There are indications that they have nearly made up their minds to let the election laws alone, and they are by no means so well satisfied with the appearance of the "issue" they have placed before the country" as they professed to be ten days ago By the first of June they will be back at the starting point, counting the cost of a campaign which may be described as a slow but very noisy advance and an immediate and very quick retreat And then perhaps we shall be able to determine how many champions have been crushed, and who they are

THE STATE CONVENTION

[From the Somerset Reporter]

We publish the ringing call for the Republican State Convention to be held at Bangor June 26th. It is broad enough to enlist the services of all men who are in favor of a National Government, the enforcement of just laws, a free ballot and honest money

[From the Kennebec Journal]

We publish to-day the call of the Republican State Committee, for the State Convention, to be held in Bangor, on Thursday, the 26th of June The call contains a clear and concise declaration of the living, vital issues now before the country and the important questions involved in the coming election The leading issues are the maintenance of the power and prestige of the Union, insisting that its Government shall be controlled by loyal men, that the course of the Democracy, now in the ascendency in the National Congress, is revolutionary in its character, that the Republican party pledges itself against the dangerous heresy of States Rights, insisting upon free elections—free from "bayonet rule," whether from State or National troops, and free from the bloody hand of the assassin, to uphold the financial credit of the Government, to assure to the people a sound currency, as opposed to the mischievous heresies of the repudiators of the national credit and those who wish to debase the currency

On these issues and with these principles, which are so clearly and tersely stated in the call, the Republican party, with the noble record which it has behind it, goes before the people of the State for their suffrages With these principles honestly maintained the Republican party ought to win, and will win If reflection and reading and discussion would not do it, the attitude of Congress has fully aroused the people to the danger which threatens the nation and whatever calamity of business or adverse local interest may have caused temporary alienation from the ranks of the Republicans, the people of Maine now see that the party upholding the Republican banner is the only political organization in the State that stands squarely for the maintenance of principles on which alone rest national honor and national security

[From the Portland Press]

The call for the Republican State Convention, published in another column, is addressed to all those who would maintain the power and prestige of the Union against all attempts to subvert or oppose its just authority, to those who discountenance and reprobate the treasonable and revolutionary course of the Democrats in Congress, to those who believe in the right of the United States to enforce its own laws wherever they are to operate; to those who believe that elections should be free, not only from National military interference, but also from the interference and violence of so called State militia and the assassins who with deadly weapons have seized the polls in many of the Southern States, and to those who would uphold the financial credit of the Government and assure to the people of all sections, a sound currency, equivalent to coin at all times and in all places and redeemable in coin The men who are not invited are those who still believe in the State rights doctrine all glance to which gave rise to the rebellion those who think the course of the Democrats in Congress has been patriotic and for the good of the country, those who would deny the general Government the right to enforce its own laws those who would allow Southern bull dozers and ruffians and Northern repeaters to work their own sweet will at the polls, and those who would deluge the country with a currency based on nothing and redeemable in nothing

Senator Blaine's after dinner speech in New York on commerce has attracted great attention William E Dodge, A A Low, H B Claflin, Moses Taylor and many other prominent business men of New York city have addressed the Senator a letter, asking him to further address the business men of the city on the decay of American Commerce and the means of promoting its revival

Gold and Greenbacks Senator Ingalls' resolution directing Secretary Sherman to inform the Senate how much gold had been paid out in the redemption of greenbacks since January 1st, did not call for the amount of gold received in exchange for greenbacks, and so the Secretary did not volunteer information on this latter point The fact is that since resumption took place the Treasury has received in exchange for greenbacks nearly two hundred thousand dollars of gold in excess of the amount paid out in the redemption of greenbacks.

Nast has a striking cartoon this week representing the Ku Klux Confederate relieving the United States soldier as "Bayonet Guard" at the polls. The picture photographs the Democratic programme

Our young neighbor rather tardily expresses a dislike for pointed discussion, and very funnily assumes a high tone He could have spared himself this sudden change of base, if he had thought of it before he began to politely speak of the Commercial as "the only paper in Bangor with any pretence to the title of a newspaper," and to attempt to prove it by impudently asserting that leading Republican citizens were acting the part of spies as its "representative." He can easily escape future political difficulties by confining his facile pen to such moral and poetical essays as that devoted last evening to "striped hose—those grace enveloped, full-developed hose"

The loyal people throughout the United States and the lover of freedom in every land, will unite in grief that the grand, old champion of Human Rights, William Lloyd Garrison, is lying at the point of death. "Faithful unto the end," his record will shine like a jewelled legacy to generations to come.

An Albany, N Y, despatch says: A caucus of Republican members of the assembly last night refused to entertain a proposition of the Senatorial Republican caucus to issue an address to the State calling attention to the superior work of this Legislature.

FROM PORTLAND

The Witham Trial.

PORTLAND, May 22 In the Witham murder trial this forenoon Miss Lucy E Gove of Machias port, testified to having had conference with Dr. Witham about settling the abduction case. Other witnesses called to his having attended her and being retained for her bills.

The Government testimony closed this afternoon with the introduction of several letters said to have been written by the respondent showing intimate relations with Miss Small, mother of the child alleged to have been murdered. The defence opened stating that they should meet the charge of murder by producing the foetus and showing that no such cut over the carotid artery as testified to by the State's witness, existed Several witnesses testified to Witham's good reputation, and one to seeing other men than Witham in the company of Miss Small.

FROM AUGUSTA.

A Railroad Contract.

FORTY-SIXTH CONGRESS—First Session.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, May 22

Mr. McDonald asked leave to introduce a bill regulating the use of the army, of which he gave notice Tuesday.

Mr Edmunds made several inquiries about the bill which Mr. McDonald answered, and the bill was received and laid on the table.

Mr McDonald gave notice that he would call it up Monday and speak thereon.

Mr Wallace gave notice of the same intention

Mr Edmunds gave notice that he would speak on the same subject when he could get the floor under the rules. (Laughter.)

Mr Slater introduced a bill to regulate intercourse with citizens of the Chinese Empire visiting or residing here; Ordered on the table and to be printed

The morning hour having expired Mr Harris called up the bill to prevent the introduction and spread of contagious or infectious diseases and moved to ignore the original bill and consider the substitute reported from the Committee, May 9. Placed on calendar.

Mr Cockrell introduced a bill providing for the construction of certain transcontinental lines of railway. Referred to the Committee on railroads.

Mr. Pendleton from the Committee on Indian Affairs reported with amendments a bill to authorize the Secretary of the Interior to expend Indian trust funds in the Texas Central railroad investment Placed on the calendar.

Mr Morrill from the Committee on Finance reported favorably upon the amendment to the bill relating to improvements of the Kanawha and Kentucky rivers Placed on the calendar.

Mr Goodrich from the same Committee reported without amendment the Senate bill relating to transportation of animals. Placed on calendar.

House.

Mr Goode introduced a bill authorizing the Secretary of the Navy to place vessels and hulks at the disposal of commissioners of quarantine or other proper persons at ports of the United States Referred to the Committee on Naval Affairs

The House resumed consideration of the bill to repeal and amend the laws relating to the transfer of cases from State to Federal courts

The Republicans refused to vote on the demand for the previous question Mr Frye wanted the bill referred to the judiciary and Mr. Harris, of Va., wanted in case the motion was voted down to withdraw pilatory motion and substitute.

Mr Conger took exception to Mr. Harris's language. Mr Garfield said that all that was wanted was time for debate

Mr Wood was willing that there should be full debate Mr. Harris said "name the time and you shall have it" Mr. Conger named the third Tuesday in January. (Laughter.) Mr Frye said the bill affected every large corporation in the country and wanted it considered by the Judiciary Finally as all efforts at compromise failed, the call of the House was proceeded with, consuming the morning hour. The bill went over till Saturday next.

Consideration of the Warner silver bill was resumed. The eighth section was amended, making silver and gold certificates of as low denomination as five dollars.

The question recurred on the next Committee amendment providing that certificates of deposit may be computed as a part of the reserved fund of National Banks Afterisome colloquy debate was allowed on the 8th section.

After some discussion the Committee amendment was rejected. The House adjourned without action on the section.

THE INDIANS.

Remaving Squatters from the Territory.

ST LOUIS, May 22 A special from Vinceton, Indian Territory, says that two companies of troops under Major Wilcox are quartered there to prevent squatters entering the territory. Soldiers are constantly at the railroad depot, and all persons arriving with the intention of going on Government land are escorted out of the Territory. Major Wilcox says that in marching over a hundred miles in the Territory he met but few squatters and these were removed.

Fight between the Gros Ventres and Mountain Crows.

BISMARCK May 22. A wounded Indian named Lone Dog from the vicinity of Bear Paw Mountain, brought down on the steamer reports of an encounter between the Gros Ventres and Mountain Crows. Several Indians were killed including Gen. Miles half-breed scout John Brugeer. The former were the attacking party The Benford and Keogh mail routes are losing their stock through the marauding Indians

GERMANY

The Tariff Question.

BERLIN May 22 In the Reichstag yesterday Bismarck made a two hours speech in support of the grain duties. He strove to show that the imposition of duties by bettering the putses of the agricultural class would give an impetus to industrial activity. The Government's proposals will probably be adopted The landed interest is now urging the protection of wool. In the election of yesterday, for President of the Reichstag the Liberals abstained from voting.

GREAT BRITAIN.

The Irish University Bill.

LONDON, May 22. The Home Rulers have chosen Wm. Shaw for leader. The government refused to give a day for further debate on a second reading of the Irish University bill.

MASSACHUSETTS.

A Savings Bank in Trouble.

LOWELL, May 22. The Savings Bank Commissioners have injuncted the Lowell 5 per cent. savings bank. This result is due to no mismanagement but to the shrinkage on mortgaged property and bank stock, to the withdrawal of deposits amounting to $35,000 in the past year, and to arrearages on interest due the bank on loans. The last item is about $100,000.

CONGRESSIONAL MATTERS.

SENATOR JONAS' STATEMENTS.

Gross Perversion of Facts

Amending it for the Record.

BOSTON, May 22. The Washington special of the Advertiser says: The speech delivered by Senator Jonas Tuesday does not appear in the Record of this morning. As it was a written speech the presumption is that the Senator is engaged in revising some of the very lame replies in regard to Louisiana affairs which he was forced to make to the awkward questions addressed to him by Senator Kellogg.

A False Statement.

Among the most effective points made by Mr Jonas was one in regard to the negro exodus He said that two parishes, which he named, were the ones from which the exodus had chiefly taken place, and to show that there was no foundation for the stories of ill-treatment which have been alleged as the cause of the exodus, he read a statement showing that these two parishes had always cast large Republican majorities and had always returned full Republican tickets elected for local and state offices.

The Truth of the Matter.

The explanation turns out to be as follows The two parishes named by Mr Jonas lie along the banks of the Mississippi river. Just back of them lie the parishes of Vachita and Morehouse, names which have become familiar as the scenes of some of the bloodiest of the Louisiana atrocities. The exodus attributed by Mr. Jonas as from the two river parishes really had its origin in Vachita and Morehouse, from large portions of which, it is said, the entire laboring population has departed. As a matter of course, these people had to cross the river parishes named by Mr. Jonas in order to reach the landings. This was one of the points in the Senator's speech in regard to which he refused to be questioned by Senator Kellogg.

Another Perversion of Fact by Jonas.

Another important feature of the same speech, and one upon which he dwelt at great length, was in regard to the, alleged packing of the juries in the recent trials of political offenders in New Orleans. It is stated on no less authority than that of District Attorney Leonard that ten of the twelve jurymenin the recent trials were Democrats, and that the two jury commissioners who selected the names from which the whole panel was drawn were both Democrats

A Bill Effectually Cornered.

The Republicans in the House have effectually cornered the bill for repealing the laws authorizing a transfer of criminal cases brought against United States officers in State courts for acts done under color of their office. The bill has its place in the morning hour, but a refusal of the Republicans to vote and one call of the House will at any time exhaust the morning hour, as it did to-day. The Republicans have the same position in regard to this important nullification measure that the Democrats once had on the Civil Rights bill. The bill now, of course, blocks all other business, except the appropriation bills and reports from privileged committees, but the Republicans do not desire to do any, and it is them present intention to hold this measure in the morning hour till the end of the session

Some of the Democratic Axioms to Adjourn

One prominent Democratic Senator said to-day that his side in the Senate was anxious to adjourn next week! He said they should pass the Legislative bill after the veto, without the political rides As to the Army bill they had not reached an agreement, but he thought they would decide to let it fall. The chief opponent of this plan for adjournment was Senator Thurman, who gave his associates as a reason for not desiring an adjournment that he did not want to return to Ohio until after the Democratic State Convention the first week in June, and he hoped the Senate could be kept in session at least till that time.

ARCHBISHOP PURCELL.

His Visit to New York

NEW YORK, May 22. The venerable Archbishop Purcell of Cincinnati arrived here this morning, accompanied by his private secretary, Rev. James F. Callaghan, D. D., editor of the Cincinnati Catholic Telegraph. The archbishop has two objects in coming to New York, one to attend the dedication of the new cathedral, and the other to devise means to relieve the Cincinnati diocese of its gigantic indebtedness. While here, a conference of archbishops and bishops throughout the country is to be held. It will be attended by Rev. Father Purcell, and some concerted action, it is expected, will be taken looking toward his permanent relief. It is thought that if several of the wealthier dioceses will assist, the embarrassment under which Archbishop Purcell labors can be easily reduced and in a few years wiped out altogether. His grace will be the guest of the cardinal while in this city.

WASHINGTON.

Prevention of General Legislation.

WASHINGTON, May 22. There is a decided disposition on the Republican side of the House to prevent consideration of any general legislation after the disposal of the Warner Silver bill, and prominent members have said there is no doubt that the Republicans would follow this course if an attempt was made to take up any of the various other measures reported by committees during the present session other than those making appropriations for the army and Executive branches of the Government.

GILES & CO —Gents: I have for more than one year prescribed your Liniment, with the very best results. I have found it as an application in Inflammation of the Lungs (Pneumonia) or in Pleurisy, one of the very best. It penetrates the tissues or parts rapidly In cases of irregularity of the heart's action, depending on nervous irritation, it acts promptly. After being made acquainted with the combination of your Liniment and seeing its action in so large a number of cases, I do not hesitate to recommend the same to both the public and the profession. Yours truly,

TO CONSUMPTIVES Wilbor's Cod Liver Oil and Lime has now been before the public twenty years, and has steadily grown in favor and appreciation. This could not be the case unless the preparation was of high intrinsic value. The combination of the Phosphate of Lime with pure Cod Liver Oil, as prepared by Dr Wilbor, has produced a new phase in the treatment of Consumption and all diseases of the Lungs. This article can be taken by the most delicate invalid without creating the disgusting nausea which is such an objection to the Cod-Liver Oil when taken without Lime. It is prescribed by the regular faculty. Sold by the proprietor, A. B. WILBOR, Chemist, Boston, and by all druggists. eodlw may19

"Truth lies in a nut shell," and "brevity is the soul of wit." To be brief, when the shell is broken, the truth will be discovered, that, the Grand Central Hotel, on Broadway, New York, now kept on both plans, the American $2.50 or $3 00, and the European $1.00, and upwards, per day, gives more satisfaction for the same money, than any other first-class house in Gotham. An elegant Restaurant, at moderate rates is conducted by the Grand Central.

A roll of bank bills was lost between Kenduskeag bridge and the Franklin House yesterday.

We were pleased to receive a call yesterday from Dr. Vaughan, Editor of the Ellsworth American

The lumbermen still complain of the scarcity of vessels, as they have a large number of cargoes waiting shipment.

Quite a number of drivers arrived in the city last evening from Chesuncook, Murphey's and Spencer's drives having got in.

Public meeting of the Crusade this evening at City Hall. Professor Hamlin will deliver one of his instructive lectures. Free to all.

Some of our citizens who are now undergoing the horrors of house cleaning are anxious to know if there is any place where they are allowed to deposit the rubbish that has accumulated about their premises.

Officers Gallagher and Rice found a fellow named Kelley, of Monson, laid out on Washington street with a huge carpet bag for a pillow last evening, and as he was too drunk to walk they took him to the station house in a hand cart.

Notwithstanding the fact that the Ellsworth American is fond of "stirring matters," we have not noticed the walking match mentioned in the column of Monday, we would call the attention of the Committee on Police to the matter, as it was arranged to take place in Hersey's Hall and perfect secrecy was observed in regard to the matter, and the first we knew of it was when we saw it announced in the columns of the American.

REPAIRS OF THE TOLL BRIDGE. The Bangor Bridge Company have recently employed some experts to examine the toll bridge between this city and Brewer and find that they have got to make some extensive repairs at once. They say that the bridge has been remarkably massive in resisting the storms over it, which caused so much damage to the smaller bridges, but that the time has become here when it must be thoroughly repaired at a large expense. The owners are actually losing quite considerable, and if being against the law to drive faster than a walk across the bridge will not do half with any one who attempts it in the future.

A TRAMP UNDER DIFFICULTIES The Ellsworth American says: "Mr. Frank Parkman started on his usual homeward course on foot recently, for Milo, on foot. Coming to the south branch of the Pleasant river near Work's Mills, in Atkinson, about ten o'clock in the evening, he found the road flooded some sixty rods from the bridge, by the late rain. Getting some poles and pieces of boards from the fence, he started out on them cpole in hand, in the darkness for the bridge; when about half way he became stranded, letting him plump into the water, and floated off in the dark beyond his sight. Getting right up, he found the water to his arms, through which he waded to the bridge and off the other side to dry land, where he took off his clothes, wrung them in the cold night air, and putting them on again started through the mud and darkness for Milo, where he arrived at about two o'clock A. M. Stopping one hour for business he started on his return, arriving at the house of the writer near Abbot village at seven o'clock P. M., having made sixty miles in 24 hours, through the mud and darkness, including his shipwreck and the housepause of his wet, heavy clothes, without sleep, and only one biter for rail at Milo, Islesboro. Klagsbury should send on your champion walkers."

Yesterday Marshal Reed was notified that two boys named Walter A. Nickerson and Geo. F. Goss ran away from their homes in Holden, Wednesday. He found the boys in the city and after keeping them in the station house awhile to cool their ardor a little they were sent home with their parents.

DUPREZ & BENEDICT'S MINSTRELS. A fair-sized audience assembled in Norombega Hall last evening to witness the minstrel entertainment by Duprez & Benedict's Troupe. The performance as a whole was very good indeed; for although some portions of it were the same old minstrel business that is always given, other parts were new and made lots of fun for the audience. The farces were very much superior to those usually given, and were presented in a very acceptable manner. Messrs. Fox and Ward in their song and dance business were immense and were repeatedly recalled. This evening there will be an entire change in the programme, and realizing that the times are hard and many would like to go who can't afford to pay the usual price, they have adopted the popular prices of 25 and 35 cents. One pleasant feature of this company's entertainment is that the usual whistling and thumping is not allowed. Some youth undertook to start it last evening, but was promptly stopped by Mr. Duprez.

Memorial Day.

B H. Beale Post No. 12 held a meeting last evening and voted to accept the invitation to go to Brewer in the morning of Memorial Day; also to go to Kenduskeag one week from next Sunday and participate in the services in that place. A detachment from the Post, accompanied by the Bangor Band, will march to Birch Hill Cemetery in the morning and decorate the graves there. The Coburn Cadets will arrive in the city in the morning and will be received at the depot and escorted to Grand Army Hall, where a collation will be served them. A detachment from the Post will also march to Hillside and Pine Grove Cemeteries and decorate the graves without any ceremony. Gen. Daniel White has been appointed Grand Marshal and he has appointed the following aides: Col. A. B. Farnham, Gen. J. S. Smith, Capt E. E. Small and F. D. Fullen

Rev. R. L. Howard, pastor of the Free Baptist Church, will preach the Memorial sermon next Sabbath evening. The members of the Post will meet at their hall at half-past six and march to the church in a body.

The following committee, one from each church, was appointed to solicit flowers from the different churches in the city

First Parish—A. B. Farnham.
Third Parish—L. W. Atkins
Hammond Street Church—H. F. Hanson
Unitarian—A. C. Hamlin
Universalist—C. V. Crossman.

The Post desires that those persons contributing flowers will leave them at the hall between the hours of six and ten on the morning of Memorial Day.

Besides the music by the Band a female quartette will sing at Mt. Hope in the afternoon.

FROM DEXTER

The Greenback Canvass—Temperance Men Realizing the Cheat of the Fusion.

DEXTER, May 21, 1879

To the Editor of the Whig & Courier

The Greenbackers of this town have posted notices for a caucus, to select delegates to the State Convention in Portland June 3 What may be the strength of this party in the coming campaign, on this section, remains to be seen, but it is a fact that those who were leaders in the movement last year are disgusted with the course pursued in temperance matters by the officers that they elected and they do not hesitate to declare that they will never again vote for a man to fill any office who is not emphatically outspoken against the rum traffic—and words alone will not satisfy them They want to be sure that no such programme will ever again be arranged and carried out as that in which Sheriff Stratton and his Deputies have figured in so outrageous a manner. The most influential Greenbackers (or rather those who were most influential last fall, for since resumption the party has hardly been heard from here at all), happen to be prominent Good Templars and temperance men, and when they talk of the manner in which the party managers here abused the confidence of the temperance people, their indignation boils with fervid heat. Whether these men will still continue to be used for the promotion of the schemes of corrupt and designing men, I cannot say, but they have been generally looked upon as candid and reasonable people, and I am inclined to think that they will—a portion of them at least—support the Republican ticket before the Democratic, rather than see the Temperance cause sacrificed like a sheep on the altar of rum politics.

The "Growing" Weather

Those who delight in the study of the weather will doubtless find that the grass is the tallest and the foliage upon the trees the most luxuriant known in the memory of the oldest inhabitant, and the general growth is so much in advance of the time at this period that crops are already looking splendidly, and if the present state of things should continue the farmers will be a most happy class of people the harvest and the farmers' festival all.

Wedding Party.

Mr. Woodbury Pulsifer, son of J. H. Pulsifer, Esq., of Auburn formerly Register of Deeds, this county, was married in the Holy Innocents church, Brooklyn, to one of these gentlemen are well known in this city, where they have been in the habit of visiting on Court. We find the following report of the happy occasion in the Brooklyn Eagle:

A large party of relatives and friends gathered Wednesday morning at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Pennell on Lafayette avenue, to witness the nuptials of Miss Adelaide, daughter of the late and beloved, and Mr. Woodbury Pulsifer, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Pulsifer, of Auburn. The parlors were elegantly decorated with rare exotics and foliage. Under an arch of beautiful flowers, from the summit of which was suspended a gilt horse shoe, engraving happy omens, stood the bride and bridegroom. The usual large ceremony was happily performed by Rev. Mr. Richardson. The bride was elegantly attired in white corded and chene silk, trimmed with Medlin lace. In one hand she held a bouquet of lily roses. The ladies were very richly costumed. There were present guests from Waterville, Portland, Boston and elsewhere. The bride's cake was served to the guests while two hundred friends presented their cordial felicitations to Mr. and Mrs. Woodbury Pulsifer and their parents. The presents were very rich and very numerous, including bronzes, silver ware, elegant toilet articles and costly bric-a-brac. Among the presents we noticed a beautiful Honiton lace handkerchief, made by the hand of an intimate lady friend of this city. An exquisite painting of moss rose buds on satin was the decoration on a fan, executed by a Portland artiste, a friend of the bride. So large and costly an array of wedding presents, indicates that the newly wedded couple receive the best wishes of hosts of sincere friends, as they enter upon wedded bliss. Mr. and Mrs. Pulsifer left on the noon train on a wedding tour to New York and Washington. They will return in a few weeks and make their home on Bates street at the residence of Mr. Pennell, where there awaits them elegant apartments, decorated and furnished in blue and gold. We bespeak for the newly wedded couple that life-long honeymoon which is the inheritance of all the matches that heaven has to do with.

ANOTHER DAM GONE.

More trouble on the West Branch

A Hole Eighty Feet Wide in the Chesuncook Dam.

Last evening word was received in this city that the Chesuncook Dam, located at the foot of Chesuncook Lake, had given away. This dam is about four hundred and fifty feet long and eighty feet, including all of the gates, have been carried away directly in the centre of the dam. The break occurred Monday, according to the report received here last night. This dam has a large flowage and as the water was unusually high this spring and the dam quite old the pressure was too great for its strength, and it had to succumb. The dam is about forty miles above the North Twin Dam.

Many of the lumbermen who entertained slight hopes, that, notwithstanding the the break at the North Twin Dam, a portion of the drive might possibly get in, now say that from twenty to twenty-five million feet of logs must remain back until next season. One gentleman informed us last evening that nearly all of the logs were out of the small streams into Chesuncook, and that they would hurry along into the lower lakes as fast as possible, without waiting for any one who happened to be behind the others. Another said that he thought they would boom the logs at the foot of Chesuncook, as that would be as far as they could get

This break will keep the water at a high point in the river for some time and it is now too high for the mills to saw comfortably. As none of the lumbermen cut a full stock last season they will be short of logs on account of this drive remaining back. The price of logs will advance accordingly and the manufacturer will have to pay as much for his logs as he can get for his lumber.

SHOOTING AFFRAY.

A Man Shot in the Face while Engaged in a Row.

Last evening we learned that there was quite a serious shooting affray at Jackson Brook yesterday It seems that a white man by the name of McCluskey and a negro, whose name we did not learn, got into a dispute which resulted in a free fight. The negro being the best man physically, he soon succeeded in getting the other fellow down and began to punish him pretty severely. As McCluskey did not relish this kind of treatment he drew a revolver and shot the negro in the face. The ball struck him in the cheek, and passing down lodged in his neck.—The wounded man belonged in Calais and he took the train for that place where he proposed to have the ball extracted. A warrant was taken out for McCluskey, but he had not been arrested at last accounts

Transferred to the Maine Conference.

At the late session of the E. M Conference, Rev. C F. Allen was transferred to the Maine Conference, thereby severing his connection with us, and with Eastern Maine. And that separation, is to his brethren a cause of deep regret. From the first, he has taken a high position among us, and has been honored in his Conference with many an expression of confidence and esteem

Very unwillingly he was surrendered from the pastorate to service as the head of our State College His circle of friends was widening every day in this new position, when we learn of it, he resigned to take up anew that which he felt to be his life work His Conference rejoiced in the prospect of his return to the ministry, and new honors were contemplated for him by his brethren, when it was seen that there were influences drawing him to the home of his youth. These early ties proved stronger than any we could throw about him, and he took a transfer to his own Conference. But he takes with him the confidence and love of his brethren, and that too of a large circle, beyond his own communion. He has proved himself a genial, and genuine christian gentleman, in every relation sustained, and his departure is a loss to his church and the section he has left.

Resolutions of complimentary character were offered by the Conference during its session. M.

E. M. C. SEMINARY.

Entertainment by the Class of '80.

Mr. Editor —The class of '80 of the East Maine Conference Seminary, at Bucksport, most happily entertained their friends, Friday evening, May 16th, with original declamations, essays and music The exercises were opened with a very pretty piano solo by Miss Hooper. Mr A. W. Moore declaimed "Gold is Obtained by Digging," which was an article of much merit, the last thought was especially interesting, that Christianity was the gold that may many years buried under superstition and ignorance, until Martin Luther had the courage to sink the shaft and bring from the darkness the golden ore, and that we should not be content with the fool's gold at the mouth of earth's mines, but sink deep the shaft and bring up life's richer things. An essay upon "Words," by Miss Mary E. Stetson caused many of us to resolve we would be more careful of our words in the future, lest their influence should be wider than we knew. "Solitude" by Mr. E. L. Kolieb, was a strong, sensible article, and was enthusiastically received by the audience. Miss Ada E Merrick read an essay entitled "The End not Yet," which was prettily written and finely read. The next on the programme was "Arbitration or War," by Mr. E. C. Porter. He eloquently depicted some of the frightful, desolating scenes that Earth had witnessed from the conflict of the Cross and Crescent to the last civil strife, and strongly favored arbitration as the most last and most Christian method of settling all political and national difficulties.

Messrs. G. Forsyth, P. Sanford and Parker sang "Christmas Chimes," which was too beautiful to comment upon. Some passages were rendered very finely. In "Sources of Natural Wealth," Mr. H. C. Gross displayed an active mind, energy and clear thought. Miss F. A. Hutchins in an essay on "Hills and Valleys," expressed very beautifully the thought that as mountains and plain, rugged heights and mossy dale gave the charm to landscape, so the heights of difficulty, the jagged peaks of obstacles and the mists of sorrow in life—all by and by would blend in a grand life-picture.

"Idleness a Constant Sin" by Mr. A. G. Gresmer was delivered in the frank, kindly, manly spirit of one who can utter unwelcome truths without giving offence.

It was noticably free from the exaggerated expressions that characterize articles written on similar subjects, yet none the less left the conviction of duty and obligation Miss E. M. Smith read in a very pleasant manner a thoughtful essay upon "Life. "Moral Beauty" by Miss E. M. Hatch was full of beautiful thoughts beautifully expressed. A vocal quartette "My Home Beyond the Tide," by Misses Stetson and Hooper, Messrs, Crawford and Babson was received with enthusiastic applause by the audience. "Roman Catholicism" by Mr. St. L. Babson contained stirring thoughts most eloquently spoken, and evinced a mind capable of grasping difficult moral questions with the courage of lofty purpose, and the clear decision of far-reaching thought. "Parasites" by Miss Angie E. Spooner was treated in an original, interesting manner and read in a self possessed, pleasing style that soon won the attention and favor of the audience

Mr. F A. Emerson declaimed an original poem in blank verse, of rare beauty The poem can speak for itself, but listening to its delivery was like gazing on living real scenes, and one felt miserable when the speaker had finished, to find themselves so suddenly brought from Paradise to Buckspori Seminary. "Dream Sweetly Love," a vocal quartette was finely rendered by Messrs Forsyth, Parker, Stores and Spofford. The chorus especially seemed as light and soft as summer clouds "Fading," by Miss Minnie Tapley was sweet and sad, prettily written and gracefully read. "Hendecosyllabics" by Miss Alice S. Howes was delightfully fresh, earnest and natural. Chinese Immigration," by Mr. M. P. Crawford, was the noblest, most Christian like article on this question we have yet had the pleasure of listening to The last on the programme was a vocal quartette, "Nearer My God to Thee," which was rendered in a very beautiful and impressive manner
